

“Practice in modern work place – auto-technician’s key to success”

No LLP-LdV-IVT-2011-LT-0488

„Der Projektträger“ Aukstadvaris Agricultural School von Litauen

Laufzeit: vom 01. Juni 2011 bis 30. Juni 2011

During the period from 12th of June, 2011 until 6th of August, 2011 a group of vocational training students from Aukstadvaris Agricultural School from Lithuania has done the internship in Austria, Land und Forstwirtschaftlicher Betrieb, by Leonardo da Vinci mobility program project No. LLP-LdV-IVT-2011-LT-0488, “Practice in modern work place – auto-technician’s key to success”. Group of project’s beneficiaries was formed by following vocational training students: Justinas Gečionis, Vidas Česonis, Justas Gudeliūnas and Deivydas Suščianovas. Internship lasted for 8 weeks, every week from Monday to Friday students were doing their practical training in Sirnitz cars first serving centre and car repairing business companies of the city of Sirnitz. Weekend time was for students’ leisure; as well cultural program was done. First week of the internship, after work program, were German language courses. Total time – 20 hours.

